

Puzzletively 4th Street

What did growl, outside in the distance.
Where God wants this killin' done.
Who came to blame the Hurricane.
What are a-changin'.
Who will give you shelter from the storm.
Who you're gonna have to serve.
What you do just like a little girl.
Well, I wanna be this baby, I don't wanna be your boss.
Where Fanny can put the load.
What of yours is light and slender.
Who must have thought that there was nothing more.
Neither a spirit maker, heartbreaker, or backbreaker.
Who is in the kitchen with the tombstone blues.
When you said you'd compromise.
One of two things a gambler needs.
Under what I hid my forty-four smokeless.
Who is gonna jump for joy when Quinn the Eskimo gets here.
What are in the four and twenty windows.
Who ain't gonna work on Maggie's farm no more.
When they drove old dixie down.
Where Cinderella is sweeping up.
